

Bat 21: A Story of Courage and Survival in Vietnam

By William L. Anderson

Bat 21 is the true story of William L. Anderson, a young Air Force pilot who was shot down over North Vietnam in 1965. Anderson spent seven years as a prisoner of war, during which time he was tortured and subjected to inhumane conditions. Despite all this, Anderson never gave up hope, and he eventually escaped from his prison camp and made his way back to freedom.
