

Maxime Maufra: Paintings and Drawings from the Zedign Art Collection

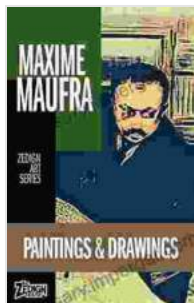

1 of 180

Landscape with Trees, c. 1890-1895

This captivating painting by Maxime Maufra captures the serene beauty of the French countryside. The artist's skillful brushstrokes depict a tranquil landscape with towering trees, rolling hills, and a winding river. The soft, muted colors and subtle light effects evoke a sense of tranquility and introspection.

Maufra was a master of landscape painting, and his works are renowned for their atmospheric qualities and emotional depth. He was particularly drawn to the landscapes of Brittany, where he found inspiration in the rugged coastline, picturesque villages, and ancient forests.
