

The Audacity to Trump

A Clinical Psychologist Reveals the Machiavellian Mind of Donald J. Trump

In The Audacity to Trump, clinical psychologist and Donald Trump's niece, Mary L. Trump, delivers a stunning and deeply personal portrait of the 45th

President of the United States. Drawing on her extensive clinical experience and unique family history, Mary L. Trump unpacks the destructive behavior patterns that have defined Donald Trump's life and presidency.

Mary L. Trump shows how Donald Trump's childhood experiences with his domineering father and emotionally neglectful mother left him deeply insecure and lacking in empathy. These early experiences, she argues, shaped his worldview and led him to develop coping mechanisms that include narcissism, projection, and lying. Mary L. Trump also explores Donald Trump's relationship with his siblings and how his competitive nature and need for attention influenced his behavior.
