Product Description

The Second Memoir Of Love And Commitment is a poignant and inspiring story of a couple's journey through the challenges of Alzheimer's disease. This book offers hope, comfort, and practical advice to those facing similar challenges.

In this second memoir, the author continues to share her personal story of love, loss, and resilience. She writes about the challenges of caring for her husband, who was diagnosed with Alzheimer's disease in 2008. She also writes about the lessons she has learned about love, commitment, and the importance of living in the present moment.

This book is a must-read for anyone who is facing the challenges of Alzheimer's disease or dementia. It is also a valuable resource for caregivers, family members, and friends.

About the Author

The author is a former journalist and public relations professional. She has written extensively about the challenges of Alzheimer's disease and dementia. She is also a sought-after speaker on the topic.
